"In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will." (Romans 8: 26-27, NIV)

It would be hard to think of the Apostle Paul needing help to pray. He was such a giant of faith and insight that we sometimes think of him as “Superman”. But He also struggled, just as we do. And in this passage, he says that “we do not know what we ought to pray for”. As good as Paul was, as knowledgeable and wise as he was, he sometimes needed help praying. He actually says that he “often” needed help praying.

Paul also teaches us another amazing side to prayer. We might be weak in our efforts, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. The Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God’s will. It is like the Spirit is a constant translator and interpreter of our weak efforts to turn our prayers into something that is according to God’s will—something so much better that we can do ourselves. He searches our hearts, and knows the mind of the Spirit, so the Spirit acts as a “go-between” for us and the Father.

When you feel weak in prayer, just remember the powerful Spirit that is helping you. The Spirit knows exactly how to pray for us. It is an amazing privilege to have the Holy Spirit praying our behalf. To me, this is very encouraging.

Thanks! VBS

We want to thank all the workers who had ANY part at all in helping with Campout VBS this year. It was truly amazing to see it all come together. Friday night we had 24 children, Sat. 20 and on Sunday 20 again. That is awesome! We pray that your hearts were touched as much as ours were to see the smiling faces of the dear little children work together, making new friends and learning that “Jesus is the Light” (follow him)! The music was so fun, games were a hit and the teddy bears will help some foster children in the area. Also, thank you for all the supplies donated to them. The food each night and the picnic was a big hit. We couldn't have done it without each of you.

God bless

Thanks again
