From the Pastor

“Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. 3 At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison—4 that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.”

(Colossians 4: 2-4, NIV)

the Apostle Paul urges them to pray. This is nothing really new in the Scripture. We all know that the Bible encourages us to pray. What is interesting to me is that Paul is asking them to pray for him as he speaks. First to open the door as he declares the mystery of Christ. And second that he makes the message clear. It is a little surprising to me that Paul his asking them to pray that he can make the message clear. Paul preached all the time. He was very good at it. He expressed some of the most profound theological points ever, but he is still humble enough to ask for their help that he can make the message clear. Paul needed their prayers to be able to speak clearly.

I wonder what would happen if we started praying this way for each other. Would we see some amazing things happen? To pray that doors open for each of us to share the good news we have learned about Christ. To pray that we can make that message clear. I know that if Paul needed their prayers, you and I do too.

Our nation needs clear voices explaining the wonders of knowing Christ. We need to pray that we can take advantage of the freedoms that we have to clearly speak about our Lord.
