asleep—in others words, those that have died—will be raised, and the ones that are left on the earth—in other words, those that are still alive—will be caught up together in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And then Paul writes these words:

“. . . and so we will be with the Lord forever.”

From that day on, those who follow Jesus as Lord will be united with the Lord. From that day on, we will never be separated. Jesus will be with you forever, along with all others that trust in Jesus.

On earth, sometimes, it feels like Jesus is far away. Sometimes it might be difficult to understand what Jesus is doing in your life. Or, you might not be quite sure what He wants. Perhaps you long to just see Him, to talk to Him, to listen to what He has to tell you. Perhaps you long to just be in His presence. The day will come when you will know all of these things, and from then on you will never be separated with the Lord.
