From the Pastor

One of the things that most people remember about Simon Peter, is his boldness, and how he told Jesus that he would never betray him, and was willing to go to prison, or even die for him. And then before the night was over, just as Jesus predicted, he had denied even knowing Jesus 3 times. The human nature makes it easy for us to identify with Peter. We know that he is not perfect. His failures let us know how normal Peter is, and then we feel like God can use us too. Peter also recovered from his failure, and went on to do amazing things. People were healed. He stood strong when questioned by the authorities. And in one case, God used him to raise Tabitha from the dead.

Before Peter did his famous denial, when Jesus told the disciples that one of them would betray him, Jesus also said this:

“Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen you brothers.”

(Luke 22: 31-32, NIV)

It is amazing that Satan had requested permission to “sift Peter like wheat.” This is a little troubling to me. I like the part that Satan has to ask for this “privilege”. Satan cannot just do whatever he wants, but he is bound by the Lord. He can only do what God allows. But the thought that Satan can sift us is concerning. I believe Jesus actually gave Satan permission to do this to Peter the night he denied him. And Jesus knew he would fail, and he also prays that “when you have turned back, that Peter would strengthen the brothers”, who has also fled to protect themselves. Satan’s sifting, Peter’s failure, and his return to trust Jesus, his ability to pick himself up after weeping and continue following the Lord helped make Peter into the giant of faith that he became. All these things made it possible for Peter to be pliable enough for the Lord to do great things through him.

I wonder, am I ready to let Satan “sift me like wheat”? Would I remain faithful like Peter did? It makes me wonder.

Your friend and pastor,

Bill
