stored up in his heart. For out of the overflow of his heart his mouth speaks.” (Luke 6: 45, NIV)

We often use the phrase, “let Jesus come into your heart.” We do not mean that Jesus is physically residing in our heart, but that Jesus’ Spirit and characteristics are deeply rooted within our soul, within the center of our being. In other words, we become more like Jesus at our very core. Our heart is right, and then we just live and speak out of the overflow of our heart.

In order to keep our heart in good shape, it is important to do “spiritual cardio” exercises. Worship, fellowship, Bible study, personal devotion, meditating on Scripture, and prayer are essential ways that we keep our spiritual hearts strong. When our hearts are strong, we can face each day with the strength of Christ guiding and empowering us.

But sometimes we try to do things that we know are good and right, but we are not “in shape”. So just as in physical exercise, if we are not prepared to physically do the task, we might not be able to keep up, or we might pull a muscle. In the same way, spiritual exercise is important in having a Christ-like heart. How good of shape is your heart? Are you living out of the overflow of good things stored up in your heart?

Bill
